IPADE's MEDEX students say:

“This has been one of the most rewarding and challenging experiences in my professional life. It has been difficult because setting priorities between work and the E.M.B.A. is complicated, at the end I have understood that I am a better professional for committing the necessary time to this program and besides the specific knowledge in finance, operations, human resources, etc. I have also learned to manage change better as well as understand my responsibility to my colleagues and environment.”

“The program has offered me an amazing senior executive network as well as a greater recognition.”

“When I started the E.M.B.A. at IPADE I already had a degree from a U.S. university. My experience at IPADE has exceeded any expectations I had at the beginning.”
