

Felipe González y González

Emeritus Professor at the Social and Political Environment Department
President of the Center for the Study of Institutional Governance, CEGI

IPADE
BUSINESS SCHOOL
UNIVERSIDAD PANAMERICANA

Academic Degrees

- PhD in Law, Universidad de Navarra.
- Executive Officers Management Program (AD-2), Instituto Panamericano de Alta Dirección de Empresa (IPADE Business School).
- Degree in Law, Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León (UANL).

Relevant courses:

- Specialization courses at the Harvard Business School and The John F. Kennedy School of Government.

Professional Activities

- Consultant and lecturer on his specialty topics, with over 200 published papers, as cases or technical notes.
- Member of the American Political Science Association (APSA); Center for the Study of the Presidency; Academy of Management.
- President of Maremagnum: Social environment, communication and personal development.
- Guest Professor:
 - Colegio de Defensa Nacional, Mexico.
 - Faculty of Law, Universidad de Navarra.
 - IESE Business School, Spain.
 - AESE Business School, Lisboa.
 - PAD, School of Management, Peru.
 - INALDE, School of Management and Business, Colombia.
 - IAE Business School, Argentina.
 - Graduate School of Political Management, George Washington University.
 - International Visitor Program, USA.
 - Institute for Social Responsibility, IPRES, Guatemala.
 - International Management Program, Miami.

Areas of Interest

- Comparative Politics
- Models of sustainable development
- Development of organizations
- Ethics and social responsibility
- High performance environment
- Non Governmental Development Organizations (ONGD)
- Total quality in the public sector (TQM)
- Leadership and personal development