

Bernardo Sainz Martínez

Professor at the Social and Political Environment Department

IPADE
BUSINESS SCHOOL
UNIVERSIDAD PANAMERICANA

Academic Degrees

- PhD in Political Studies, Queen's University, Ontario, Canada.
- Master's in Government and Public Policy, Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City.
- Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy (With Honors), Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City (Exchange at DePaul University, Chicago).
- Specialization in Social, Economic, and Political Studies (Magna Cum Laude), The Phoenix Institute, University of Notre Dame, Indiana / ITI, Trumau, Vienna.

Other Studies:

- International Academic Program, Research Symposium: Public Value through Equity, Efficiency and Legitimacy, Harvard University and Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, 2024.
- International Summer Research Institute, States and Nations: Diversity, Domination and Legitimacy. EURAC Research, Bolzano/Bozen, 2023.
- Institute for Qualitative and Multi-Method Research (IQMR) Program, Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University, 2021.
- Quantitative Methods for Social Sciences, IPSA-FLACSO, Mexico Summer School, 2019.
- Program for Strengthening Public Service in Latin America of the Botín Foundation, Brown University, Botín Foundation, and Getulio Vargas Foundation, 2015.

Professional Activities

- Associate Director, Center for Research in Social Responsibility (CIRES), IPADE.
- Teaching Assistant / Teaching Fellow at the Department of Political Studies, Queen's University.
- Academic Collaborator at the Social and Political Environment area, IPADE.
- Adjunct Professor, Department of Humanities, Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City.
- Teaching Assistant at the Phoenix Institute Summer Programs at the University of Notre Dame.
- Cultural Projects Analyst, Commission of Culture and Cinematography of the Mexican Chamber of Deputies.
- Founder, Director, and Teacher at Nous, an association promoting philosophy, ethics, and culture for secondary and higher education students.

Awards

- “Social Sciences Outstanding Thesis 2023-2024”, selected by the School of Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Affairs, Queen’s University.
- Governor General’s Gold Academic Medal Nominee 2024.
- Passed with distinction in comprehensive field exam in Comparative Politics, Queen’s University.
- Principal's International Doctoral Award and Queen's Graduate Award. Queen’s University.
- Highest GPA of the Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy at Universidad Panamericana (2011-2015).
- ANUIES Award for Social Service Experience 2016, for work at Nous.

Areas of Interest

- Comparative Politics and Political Theory
- Ibero-American Politics
- Civil Society and Political Parties
- Nationalism and Social Movements
- Ethics and Philosophy
- Corporate Social Responsibility